Re: *Justin Maher v. Caitlin Railo v. Quality Bus Services, LLC
Case Number: 14 Civ. 3586 (JCM)

Dear Hon. Judge McCarthy:

It is my understanding that there is a conference that was formerly a telephone conference and is now a conference in person scheduled for February 24, 2015. Our office has sent out the appropriate Consent to Change Attorney form to the plaintiff's prior attorney, Cognetti & Cimini on February 4, 2015. To date, we have not received the same back.

We would appreciate it if the Court could possibly direct that Cognetti & Cimini bring the file to Court on February 24, 2015.

Thank you in advance.

Respectfully yours,

Gary Greenwald

Re: Justin Maher v. Caitlin Railo v. Quality Bus Services, LLC
Case Number: 14 Civ. 3586 (JCM)

Dear Mr. Cimini & Mr. Foulke:

Justin Maher has come to my office today, on his own, and requested that our firm, to once again represent him with regard to his personal injury matter that you substituted our firm for. Though I still do not understand why the litigation that we commenced was discontinued, it is my understanding that the matter is pending in the Southern District.

Accordingly, I have enclosed herewith the appropriate Consent to Change Attorney form, which has been executed by Mr. Maher. Please execute this form and return it to the undersigned together with the contents of your file within a week. I will be sending a letter to Judge McCarthy.

Kindly execute the same and contact my office so we can make arrangements to pick up Mr. Maher's file. Any issues of liens can await the ultimate resolution and if we can agree, that will resolve the matter with any lien that you might have.

I am also putting forth Mr. Maher's request that he not be contacted in any fashion by either of your law firms. Please note, our firm had nothing to do with Mr. Maher coming back to our firm, which he will confirm.

Very truly yours,

Gary Greenwald
